

Pappas Telecasting is 'donationing' $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates in California.

The FCC must stop this abuse of the public's airwaves.

If Pappas, which exists at the behest of the FCC, gives time to one candidate in a political race, in fairness, all candidates should be given free time.

Indeed, the FCC should require that federally licensed broadcasters should provide free time to ALL candidates as a condition of running paid political advertising. Moreover, licensees should charge no more for political ads than they charge to other advertisers.

Pappas' action is clearly an abuse of its FCC-granted Franchise. Please act!
